The assigned examining attorney has reviewed the referenced application and determined the following.

SEARCH

The examining attorney has searched the Office records and has found no similar registered or pending mark which would bar registration under Trademark Act Section 2(d), 15 U.S.C. Section 1052(d). TMEP section 1105.01.

If there is no common commercial name for the product, the applicant must describe the product and its intended uses. TMEP section 804.

Law & Order: Special Victims Unit

An episode guide by Tom Myers

Christopher Meloni as Det. Elliot Stabler
Mariska Hargitay as Det. Olivia Benson
Richard Belzer as Det. (later Sgt.) John Munch
Dann Florek as Capt. Donald (Don) Cragen
Ice-T as Det. Odafin (Fin) Tutuola [episode 24+, uncredited on episode 23]
B.D. Wong as Dr. George Huang [season 4+, recurring seasons 2 & 3]
Tamara Tunie as Medical Examiner Malinda Warner [season 7+, recurring previously]
Michaela McManus as ADA Kim Greylek [season 10+]
Diane Neal as ADA Casey Novak [seasons 5 (episode 96) - season 9]
Adam Beach as Det. Chester Lake [season 9, recurring previously]
Stephanie March as ADA Alexandra (Alex) Cabot [episodes 24 - 95, guest star on episode 23]
Michelle Hurd as Det. Monique Jeffries [episodes 14 - 23, 29, and 38, recurring episodes 1 - 13]

"In the criminal justice system, sexually based offenses are considered especially heinous. In New York City, the dedicated detectives who investigate these vicious felonies are members of an elite squad known as the Special Victims Unit. These are their stories."

The series is filmed on location in New York City and in New Jersey by Wolf Films in association with Studios USA.

Detective John Munch originally appeared on the critically acclaimed NBC TV show Homicide: Life On The Street which used to air on Friday nights at 10 PM. The relocation of Law & Order: Special Victims Unit to its Friday time slot returned Belzer's Munch to his home of seven years. Interestingly enough, their CBS counterpart Nash Bridges was responsible for the cancellation of Homicide. To the joy of many Homicide fans, including myself, Bridges has been cancelled due to the popularity of SVU.

6 February 2007: Reports indicate that Adam Beach (season 7 guest star as Det. Chester Lake) will join the cast as a regular.

25 February 2006: Connie Nielsen will guest star on Law & Order: Special Victims Unit while Mariska Hargitay is on maternity leave.

16 January 2005: Mariska Hargitay won a Golden Globe for Best Actress in a Dramatic Series for her role as Det. Olivia Benson on Law & Order: Special Victims Unit.

23 June 2003: Dick Wolf announced that Diane Neal has been cast in the role of the new ADA. She replaces Stephanie March, who left the series at the end of the fourth season. Neal, who appeared as a guest star in the 2001 episode "Ridicule," will be a recurring guest star with the option of becoming a regular.

13 May 2003: NBC announced that Law & Order: Special Victims Unit will move to Tuesday nights in the Fall 2003 programming schedule. That would put the series in competition with ABC's cop show NYPD Blue.

17 December 2002: Stephanie March announces that she will leave Law & Order: Special Victims Unit at the end of the season.

August 2002: Law & Order: Special Victims Unit will debut its fourth season on Friday, September 27 @ 10:00 as part of NBC's 'Premiere Week'.

July 2002: Law & Order: Special Victims Unit has received an Emmy nomination in the Outstanding Guest Actress in a Drama Series category. The nominated actress is Martha Plimpton as Claire Rinato in the episode "Denial." The Emmy Awards will be broadcast on Sunday, September 22 at 8:00 PM on NBC.

18 May 2001: CBS has announced that Nash Bridges, among other shows, would not receive a season renewal. One of the reasons stated was its viewers were tuning into 20/20 and Law & Order: Special Victims Unit. While it is too late for Homicide, one cast member, Richard Belzer, can reap the benefits of this latest development. Richard Belzer used to play Detective John Munch on Homicide before he was transferred to SVU.

May 2000: NBC announced that SVU would get a renewal of not just one, but two years! It was the only "freshman series" of the 1999-2000 to get a season renewal of more than one year.

Captain Donald Cragen oversees Manhattan Special Victims Unit Detectives Elliot Stabler and Olivia Benson in the investigation of the murder and dismemberment of a cab driver, with help from Detective Brian Cassidy and his new partner, Detective John Munch, a recent transfer from the Homicide Unit in Baltimore, Maryland.

September 20, 1999
Written by Dick Wolf
Directed by Jean DeSegonzac

NOTE: Baltimore Detective John Munch's marriage to Billie Lou at the end of the final season of Homicide:

Life on the Street lasted only one night when Munch says that she ran off with a former colleague (although Det. Stuart Gharty's name is never mentioned, it is probable that Gharty was the homewrecker). So Munch retires from the Baltimore force and relocates to NYC and joins this unit. In Homicide: The Movie it is implied that Billie Lou didn't leave Munch for Gharty, but they also don't say what really happened.

Episode #2: "A Single Life"

3. Prior to its introduction, I never examined the reverse of People's 32, nor did I seek to obtain any of the documentation denoted above.

4. There was no strategic reason for my failure to do so. In fact, such materials would have proved indispensable in presenting our defense and discrediting the People's witnesses.

5. With respect to the hearsay testimony presented by the numerous so-called "outcry witnesses," I failed to object to this testimony. There was no strategic reason for my failure to do so. Indeed, the "outcry witnesses" were damaging to our case, as it bolstered the testimony of the complaining witnesses through hearsay repetition.

Exhibit Q

5. Upon my return to New York City and through the duration of Mr. Green's trial, I never received any calls from Mr. Giannelli for the purposes of assisting him in the defense of Thomas Green. Due to the fact that I received no calls, I presumed that my services were no longer needed by Mr. Giannelli.

6. It is my normal practice to make myself available to counsel during the course of a trial on a round the clock basis to assist and investigate any matters that might arise and necessitate my immediate investigative action during trial.

7. In fact, the next time I heard of the case was through the media reports of Mr. Green's conviction.

8. On October 14, 2008 I was contacted by Mr. Green's new defense team for the purposes of participating in his post-conviction defense. I immediately provided my continued services to Mr. Green as requested by new counsel.

9. On October 30, 2008 I along with Private Investigator Andrew Cilenti and Defense Counsel was afforded the opportunity to view the evidence presented by the prosecution during Mr. Green's trial.

10. I photographed the evidence with particular attention to serial numbers and other identifying factors of this evidence. As an example of what could have been done had Mr. Giannelli utilized my services, within less than 24 hours of viewing the Polaroid photograph presented at trial by the prosecutor as People's exhibit 32, through the Polaroid Corporation, I was able to establish that the testimony pertaining to the date of the photo being June, 1998 as presented at trial was erroneous.

11. My investigative team would have further been able to show that the Halloween photograph known as People's 18 was also improperly presented by the prosecution to the jury to be a 1998 photograph.

12. With regard to the Turbo Twist Speller ("Speller") introduced into evidence at trial by the prosecution as a gift given from Thomas Green to Barbara Monaco during the 1998-1999 time period, my investigative team would have been able to easily ascertain through the United States Patent and Trademark Office that the earliest date the Speller entered commerce was August 25, 2000.

13. With regard to the Law and Order Special Victims Unit air date, I was able to do a quick internet search that immediately revealed that the very ~~first~~ episode of this program was September 20, 1999. I was able to further verify this information by placing a simple phone call to NBC's legal department who verified the information obtained online---i.e. that the program did not air until September 20, 1999. I was instructed by NBC's legal department that this information would be provided in admissible form following service of a subpoena.

14. I was never afforded the opportunity by Mr. Giannelli to investigate on behalf of Mr. Green, the authenticity of any of the evidence, let alone the foregoing evidence that was presented to the jury in the course of the People's case against Thomas Green.
